

8 FREE THINGS TO DO IN KC .....

There are tons of fun things you can do in Kansas City that don't require you to spend a dime. Grab a friend or your significant other and declare a "Free-For-All" weekend. You may be surprised at how much free fun you can find in our fair city. Here are a few suggestions to get you started.

1 NELSON-ATKINS
Explore the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art - it's always free. And always amazing.
PLAN IT—nelson-atkins.org

2 CLIFF DRIVE
Find a few new areas to bike or hike. Start with Cliff Drive - Missouri's only urban scenic byway.
PLAN IT—cliffdrivekc.org

3 MONEY MUSEUM
Discover stuff you never knew about our coins and bills at the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City's Money Museum. You'll even go home with a free bag of shredded money!
PLAN IT—kansascityfed.org/moneymuseum/

4 (CROSSROADS)
First Fridays at the first of every month showcases local and national artists in galleries and studios in the Crossroads.
PLAN IT—kccrossroads.org

5 KC STREETCAR
Hop on the Streetcar & check out the stops from Union Station to City Market. It stops every 10-15 minutes, so you'll never wait long for your next adventure.
PLAN IT—kcstreetcar.org

6 SWEET KC VIEWS
Find all the best (free) views of Kansas City from the City Hall Observation Deck to The Scout statue.
PLAN IT—kansascityattractions.com/Observation_Decks.html

7 BOULEVARD BREWING
Get a behind-the-scenes look at how Boulevard brews its famous beers during daily, hour-long tours. Plus you'll get free samples in the Tasting Room!
PLAN IT—boulevard.com/visit-us/tours

8 PLAZA FOUNTAINS
Kansas City is "The City of Fountains". Download the free guide book and take a tour.
PLAN IT—kcfountains.com